Crafters of Local Banking

Artisans' Bank

Following in the footsteps of their Artisans' Bank founders, Kellee Mellott and Joanne Williams continue the 150-year-old tradition of neighbor helping neighbor. The pair lead teams of Artisans' employees, who together deliver competitive savings and lending products to their communities. Local decision-making ensures "quality delivery of retail sales and customer service through every customer touch that we have," says Joanne. Kellee agrees, adding "you get to know the people, they're not just an account number." Get to know Artisans' bankers, local crafters of personalized service and full-service banking solutions.
